

DAY 3 ST. ANDREW'S ABBEY AFTERNOON

A visit in a deckchair

Then I go to relax in the Abbaye Saint-André. Beyond its remarkable gardens in France and its many memorable views, it is for me a true place of disconnection and rest. I grab a book and settle into the sun loungers, always strategically placed in the gardens to enjoy a view.

LOUNGE CHAIR

The dynamism of the owners is a major factor in the preservation of this prestigious place and its warmth.

MY Villeneuve

The Ventoux

The Abbey

DAY 3 LA MONTEE DU FORT

AFTERNOON

The "descent" of the Montée du Fort

GROCERY STORE

#PHOTOLAB
photolab.m

After my visit, I go back to the Place Jean Jaurès via the montée du Fort. On my way, I risk a stiff neck by raising my head at the foot of the Palais Bertrand du Pouget (N°9). It is the best preserved Cardinal's Palace in Villeneuve, as is its beautiful roof of lauzes. A bit like San Gimignano, the aim is to show its power and wealth by gaining height. Mission accomplished: it far exceeds the neighbourhood.

My Villeneuve

A little further up, I like to stop at Ninie's grocery shop (N°17). Good finds and good local products (honey, olive oils, cheeses, wines, etc.). And Virginie is so nice!

Bon Appétit!

DINNER

The Place Jean Jaurès is the place for restaurants in Villeneuve. I regularly have lunch or dinner there. L'Aubergine, La Salamandre, Kashmir, Chez Olivier are good values, with a reasonable budget.