ROUSSILLON

ROUSSILLON offers many shaded spots for outdoor lunch, such as the Château park, which offers a panoramic view of the Luberon and Mont Ventoux, or the gardens of the tourist office, located in the heart of the village.

Ocher is a natural mineral powder, generally composed of iron hydroxide. It comes in several colors, ranging from straw yellow to bright red, including brown and orange. Ocher has been used as a natural pigment since prehistoric times: traces of it can be found in caves decorated with wall paintings dating back more than 40,000 years.

After your stroll in Provençal Colorado, why not make a stop in the village of Roussillon? Ranked among the most beautiful villages in France, Roussillon is renowned for its rich historical heritage, but also for its gastronomy. The village is home to numerous restaurants, cafes and bakeries where you can taste Provençal specialties. For your picnic, consider bringing a traditional baguette, local goat's cheese, black olives from Nyons, not forgetting a bottle of local wine.

The village of Roussillon is classified among the Most Beautiful Villages in France, it is known for its ocher cliffs and its picturesque streets. Its name is derived from the Latin word for red, due to the reddish color of the local ocher. Roussillon was once an important center of ocher production, used in painting and construction.

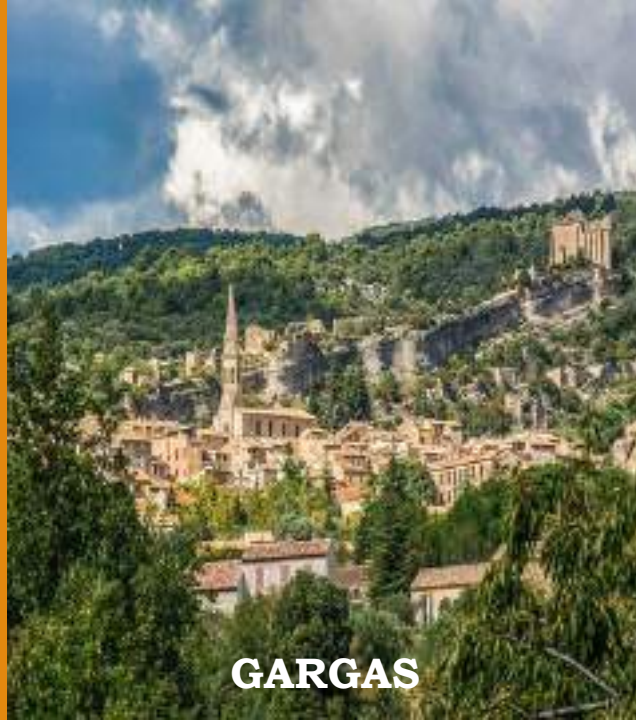

APT

GARGAS is a picturesque village located just 5 km from Roussillon. The village is known for its red ocher cliffs and its traditional Provençal architecture. Visitors to Gargas can explore the charming narrow streets, visit the local market and enjoy the views from the top of the cliffs.

GORDES

APT, located just 11 km from Roussillon, it is a town with a rich history. Apt was once an important stop on the Via Domitia, a Roman road that connected Italy and Spain. Today, visitors to Apt can explore the old town, visit the ruins of the Roman aqueduct, and enjoy live music and street markets.

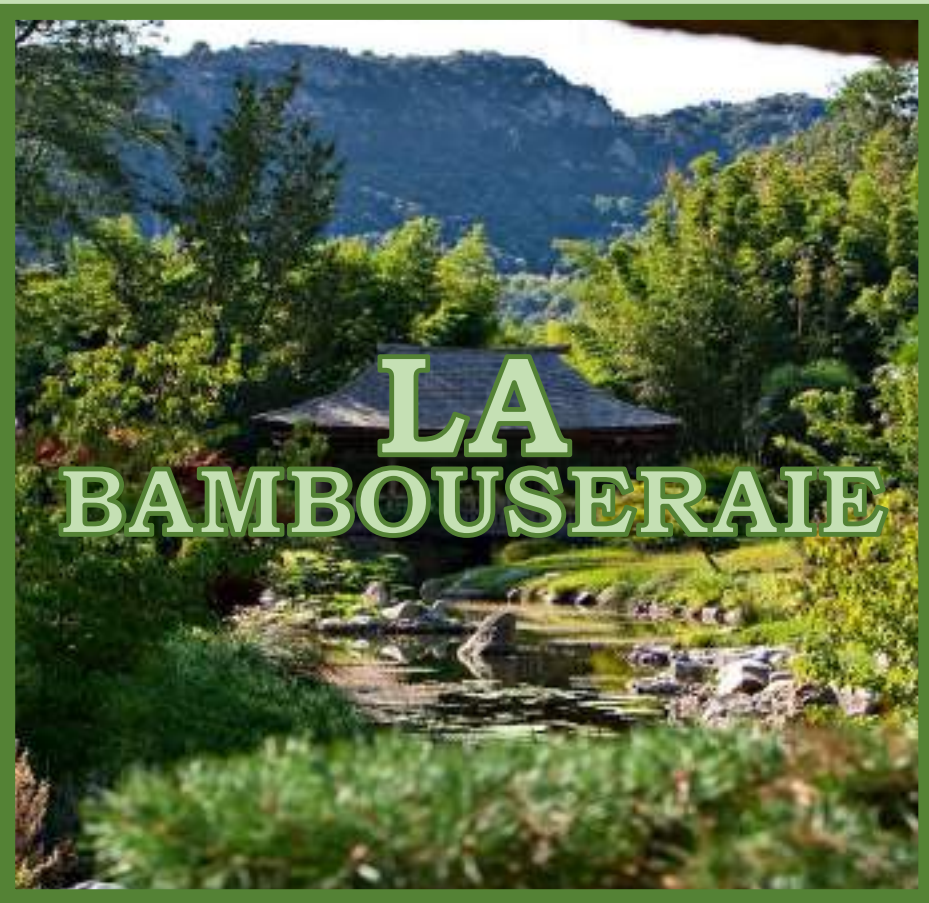

GARGAS

GORDES is another charming Provençal village, located just 8 km from Roussillon. Gordes is one of the most famous villages in Provence, and it is known for its imposing stone houses and beautiful hilltop setting. You can explore the village's winding streets, visit the 12th-century castle and enjoy panoramic views of the countryside.

PLAINE DE L'ABBAYE

Many different species of birds hang out in the canal, and beavers even make their home here, hence the name Chemin des Castors given to the other side of the path. At certain times of the year, you will find fisherman along the canal or by the river with their fishing rods out, hoping to catch something.

Walking, running and biking are all popular activities on this route. You will see people of all ages out walking their dogs or enjoying time with friends or family. Sometimes walking or running groups use the path, but the atmosphere is always peaceful and friendly, and never busy. It never feels as though a big city is minutes away.

The Promenade du Canal starts right beside the Tour Philippe le Bel in Villeneuve-lès-Avignon. At the entrance, there is a nice garden in front of the parking lot where the path and canal start. It is very easy to spot and access, the loop around the canal is roughly 6km difficulty level is about zero. halfway along the path, there is a bridge that crosses to the other side of the canal if you do not want to walk the full distance. If you want more of a shady walk, the path on the left bank of the canal has a lot more trees and is very nicely shaded from the sun.

Keep your eyes opened during your walk, as there are lots of things to see on the way, about halfway by the bridge, you can see Fort Saint André towering above the farm fields in front of you. Right around this area, there is also a large stone sculpture that was carved on site by artist Pascal François. Along the way, you can also catch glimpses of the Palais des Papes in the distance and the shining golden statue of the Virgin of the Cathédrale des Doms. The Tour Philippe le Bel marks the start and end of your walk.
